

Gaming Tribe Adds Staff Members

Dallas, Texas – Friday, January 15, 2016 - Gaming Tribe, a global social network for tech savvy gamers primarily sponsored by Logitech, announced that it has added three new members to its staff.

“As Gaming Tribe continues to grow, our needs also continue to expand,” said Angel Munoz, Founder and Creative Director of Gaming Tribe. “We are proud to add three new members to our staff who can help us achieve our 2016 goals and bring powerful experiences to the members of our global community.”

The three new staff members are:

Reuel Sarmiento Panduma, a former student Saint Columban College with a degree in Information Technology. He has 6 years of experience in graphic design, and as a DJ (Disc Jockey). He is currently associated with a local TV station in Pagadian City, Philippines, as Chief Editor & Technical Head in Multimedia, and he's also Vice President of PACE (Pagadian Alliance of Computer Enthusiasts) a society of PC enthusiasts. He will be creating graphics for the GTribe promotions.

Diyan Harisusanto, a former Graphic Design student of Weames Education Center, Indonesia, has 13 years of experience in graphic design and printing. He spent four years as graphics designer, next four years as designer and pre-print director, and recently became CEO of small printing company in Lombok, Indonesia. He will be creating graphics for the GTribe promotions.

Sagar Agrawal, a former student of Nagpur University, India with a degree in Computer Application. He has 12 years of experience in PC maintenance, and sells custom build gaming and workstation PCs in India. Sagar also owns a business that specializes in commercial and promotional video advertisement. He will create dynamic videos for the GTribe global promotions.

ABOUT GTribe
