

GTribe Announces New Public Relations Manager

(April 25, 2017, Dallas, TX) – Dallas, TX based GTribe, a global social media network for tech savvy gamers, announces that it has added a new member to its staff; Damian Gowarzewski is GTribe's new Public Relations Manager.

“As GTribe evolves, we also need to enhance our methods of communicating with the general public,” said Angel Munoz, Founder and President of GTribe. “We're thrilled to add Damian Gowarzewski to our staff so he can assist us in this process, and help us achieve our 2017 goals.”

Damian Gowarzewski started his gaming adventure with Contra, which sparked his love for team based shooters. He has a bachelor's degree in Managerial Linguistics from European University of Business in Poznań, where he continued his education on MBA studies. His marketing career started in digital marketplace Kinguin, where he worked as both Community Manager and PR Specialist. After brief adventure in the startup world, he wanted to return to the gaming industry. He spends his free time playing games that require cooperation and teamwork. His recent favorite is Rainbow Six Siege.

As Public Relations Manager, Damian is in charge of interacting with the media and press, and ensuring that the uniqueness of the GTribe community is exposed to the general public.
