

GTribe Announces New Sales Manager

(April 4, 2017, Dallas, TX) – Dallas, TX based GTribe, a global social media network for tech savvy PC gamers, announces that it has added a new member to its staff, Agnieszka Ratajczak is GTribe's new Sales Manager.

“As GTribe continues to grow, our needs continue to expand,” said Angel Munoz, Founder and President of GTribe. “We are thrilled to add Agnieszka Ratajczak to our staff so she can help us achieve our 2017 goals, and assist us in bringing new experiences to the members of our global community.”

Agnieszka Ratajczak has been involved in video games since she was a young girl. After graduating from Koszalin University of Technology with a degree in Marketing, she fell right into her greatest love by working as a Marketing Executive for the digital marketplace Kinguin. While her pleasure was her work, she had plenty of time to game as well. Her favorite experiences come from playing with the XI Kohorta gaming guild and traversing through worlds like TERA, SWTOR and Final Fantasy XIV.

As Sales Manager, Agnieszka is in charge of attracting new partners and community sponsors to GTribe and to ensure their experience is positive and rewarding.
