

XFX Renews Sponsorship of Gaming Tribe

Dallas, Texas — Wednesday, April 20, 2016 — Gaming Tribe, the world's first social media network for tech savvy gamers, announced that XFX, a premier developer of cutting-edge graphics cards, power supplies and PC accessories, extended their global sponsorship of Gaming Tribe through 2017. XFX will enhance their support of the popular Gaming Tribe promotions, and continue to increase their engagement on their GTribe page located at www.gamingtribe.com/page/XFX

"The XFX team is in awe of Gaming Tribe's global community," said Brent Angie, Vice President of Sales at XFX. "The organic engagement and interaction are among the highest we've seen on any social media network. We're happy to renew our sponsorship of this exciting community, and look forward to offering more exclusive promotions for the members of GTribe."

"I'm thrilled that XFX has extended its support of the GTribe community," said Angel Munoz, Founder and President of Gaming Tribe. "I'm a huge fan of the XFX products and believe they are among the very best in the world, so we are pumped to be given the opportunity to host their social network activities through 2017."

About GTribe

GTribe™ is the world's first social media network for tech savvy gamers.
